Springfields are celebrating the history of the tulip this year so the paintings can be in any medium but must be predominantly of tulips. They would prefer paintings to have some historical aspect to them be it something from the Ottoman Empire, local or a heritage variety but this is not essential

Paintings can be landscape or portrait but must be the following sizes

If painting on canvas or board the preferred size is 9" x 12"

If painting on paper the painting MUST be 8" x 12" & submitted without a mount or frame. These will be mounted for display with a standard sized mount.

One entry per person - entry is free

All entries will be returned.

Springfields & SACS reserve the right to use any images for publicity.
